

Prepare to become a U.S. citizen with the new USA Learns Citizenship Course.

Study anytime, anywhere with this FREE online course! Learn the information and English language you need to become a U.S. citizen. You will learn:

- The steps to becoming a U.S. citizen
- What to expect at your interview
- Vocabulary and grammar for answering interview questions
- U.S. history and government for the English test
- What to do after becoming a U.S. citizen

Learn vocabulary words!

The screenshot shows a lesson titled "Identification — Learn Key Words" under "N-400 Interview Practice 2.3 Information about You". It features an image of a postcard and a driver's license for Carla Martin. The text defines the word "alias" as "a different name" and provides an example: "My legal name is Carla Martin, but my driver's license says Carlota Martin." A "Listen" button is visible at the bottom left.

Learn U.S. civics!

The screenshot shows a lesson titled "Civics — The People" under "Civics, Reading, and Writing Practice 3.3 Early America". It features an image of a ship and a group of people. The text defines "The People" as "People from Europe came to live in colonies in America. These people were called colonists. They came to America for many reasons. Some colonists came for religious or political freedom, and others came for economic opportunity. The colonists wanted a chance for a better life in this 'New World.'" A "Listen" button is visible at the bottom left.

Practice listening and speaking!

The screenshot shows a lesson titled "Loyalty to the U.S. — Say It!" under "N-400 Interview Practice 2.10 Loyalty and the Oath". It features a video player showing a woman speaking. The text defines the "Oath of Allegiance" as "a promise to support and defend the United States." A "Listen" button is visible at the bottom left.

Practice reading and writing!

The screenshot shows a lesson titled "Writing Test Practice — Write It!" under "Civics, Reading, and Writing Practice 3.9 Fighting For Equal Rights". It features an image of a group of people with the text "WE VOTE!". Below the image, the sentence "Citizens have the right to vote." is displayed with underlines. A "Listen" button and a "Check" button are visible at the bottom left.

Go to usalearns.org and select Start Now to register.

The USA Learns Citizenship course was supported in part by the U.S. Institute of Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act, administered in California by the State Librarian. Content was developed in partnership with the Immigrant Legal Resource Center and the New Americans Campaign, with support from the Grove Foundation.

USA Learns is an ongoing project of the Sacramento County Office of Education.

